

THE DAILY APPEAL.

WEDNESDAY—NOVEMBER 17, 1868.

TRADE.— Mr. J. H. Roberts, the distinguished tragedian, is at present in the city.

ARMED GUARD.— An attempt is making in the city to organize a military company. We hope the attempt will this time be successful.

STORMY TEA.— For Wilson was put in jail yesterday, the tea-staining carpenter's tools belonging to Sam's Harness.

TRADE.— We thank A. H. Brown, for late October, for also to our friend Brown, of Adams Express, for Eastern exchange.

SHIPPING.— The stockholders of the Southern Pacific Railroad Company are requested to meet at the office of Judge Kino, this (Wednesday) evening, at 3 o'clock. A full and general attendance is desired.

HABIT ON BAL.— Wm. Comstock, who stands charged with killing John Tamm, has been held on $1,000 bail by the court which had appointed him to his trial at the next session of the Criminal Court.

DISGRACE.— A boy with the shorts broken off and a horse with the harness dangling about his head, were signs to the people about the corner of Second and Union streets, yesterday morning, that there had been a runaway.

SOFTS OF THE KING.— It is the purpose of Mr. Lovell, proprietor of the Australian Hotel, to place him in combat with a trained bull, at the Fair Grounds on next Saturday week. The wager is $1,000, and the price of admission $1.00. See his card in another column.

THEATRE.— The Marchioness are slightly gratified by the success of their recent unbound appliances from audiences who exhibit the strongest admiration. But a few more opportunities remain to see these talented children—they should not be neglected.

BOOKS.— CLAYTON & VADEN have received the following new books, a more particular notice of which we are compelled to lay over until to-morrow: Cornelius' Grammar, School Geography, Blodoo and Berneke, or the Goshenite Accents, Burton No. 1, a study of the German Accents.

ANOTHER GONE.— We yesterday mentioned the death of Mrs. SHALL, at New Orleans, last evening. J. W. WOODWARD, Worthington, has received a dispatch from her informing him of the death of Mrs. THOMAS B. WOODWARD, daughter of Mrs. SHALL, and sister of our former fellow citizen, George Shall, Esq.

CACHE.— A fellow named Carson was found, yesterday, in possession of a valise, which had obtained at the Gayoso House, he had stolen the checks and writing materials.

He said he was to carry the money, but had given it up to the carrier. The rebels are preying industriously.

ANOTHER GONE.— We yesterday mentioned the death of Mrs. SHALL, at New Orleans, last evening. J. W. WOODWARD, Worthington, has received a dispatch from her informing him of the death of Mrs. THOMAS B. WOODWARD, daughter of Mrs. SHALL, and sister of our former fellow citizen, George Shall, Esq.

CRIMINAL COURT.— At this court, yesterday, the Grand Jury found a true bill against CHARLES MANNING, charged with stealing a coat from CHARLES STEWART; JAMES FOWLER for stealing clothing from H. H. POTTER, was found guilty, and sent to prison for three days; and the jury found him not guilty of the contemplated appropriation.

ALDERMAN ROBINSON interrupted the speaker to observe that the Government had, or would resign the office of Assistant Secretary of State, and the Washington Office, is to be

ALDERMAN ROBINSON appointed to the position of Minister to France.

WANTED.— Our chancery is now full and, as we have been observing, under the exact management of Marshal UNDERWOOD, they are doing good, useful work for the country.

A portion of the time, however, these observations are to be removed and other preparations made for the rush of business that is now at hand, that ought to be done before the race and make the work impossible. The what must consider the matter of greatest importance and we agree with him.

VALUABLES AT WILMINGTON.— For sometime the strong machine of Mr. Warren, on Madison street, has been infested at nights with a number of loafers who slept among the shavings, and often took their pipes among them in the most reckless manner. On Monday night the crowd was found in his boot.

The whole—except the "monied ones"—were put on the chain-gang for twenty-three days each.

FATIGUE.— On Monday night FRANK LEET, a German tailor, working at Mr. Munro's shop, left the Master Hall, at the rear of the building, to go home, at the corner of Main and Market streets, at the time the grand fall into the unoccupied opening at the south end of the south-west corner, and his head striking on iron girders the skull was fractured and in a few minutes he was dead. A gentleman who descended to his assistance, also fell into the second floor basement, but escaped with only a scratch.

LEET was an expert in tailoring, by the way. He was a tailor. This is a shocking occurrence and comes from a reckless hater to the safety of passengers too often exhibited by the managers of new buildings.

THE ECLIPSE.— There is no boat that lands at our wharf that is better known or more universally admired than the Eclipse; her exterior accommodations, variegated saloons, and shaded saloon, spacious state-rooms and magnificence of her famous crew. Our readers will be glad to learn that this great boat is to become a regular packet, plying between Memphis and New Orleans.

She has just purchased by the Memphis Packet Company, and will have the same officers and crew as the New Orleans Packet formerly had. The Eclipse will henceforth leave this port for New Orleans every alternate Monday.

Port of Memphis.

RIVER NEWS.

The river continued to fall yesterday. The landing was alive with business, and a fine sunny day with a frosty air gave excellent opportunity for trade.

The fine boat, the Queen of the Mississippi, one of the most comfortable steamers, commanded by the amiable Captain, Smith, was at the landing, and will leave tonight at 8 o'clock for New Orleans. This is a good opportunity to travel in a first class boat with a first class crew.

The great boat Eclipse, unengaged for the season, and of the richness and beauty of her finish, has been purchased by the Memphis and New Orleans Packet Company, and will have the same officers and crew as the New Orleans Packet formerly had. The Eclipse will henceforth leave this port for New Orleans every alternate Monday.

THE ECLIPSE.—There is no boat that lands at our wharf that is better known or more universally admired than the Eclipse; her exterior accomodations, variegated saloons, and shaded saloon, spacious state-rooms and magnificence of her famous crew. Our readers will be glad to learn that this great boat is to become a regular packet, plying between Memphis and New Orleans.

She has just purchased by the Memphis Packet Company, and will have the same officers and crew as the New Orleans Packet formerly had. The Eclipse will henceforth leave this port for New Orleans every alternate Monday.

THE ECLIPSE.—There is no boat that lands at our wharf that is better known or more universally admired than the Eclipse; her exterior accomodations, variegated saloons, and shaded saloon, spacious state-rooms and magnificence of her famous crew. Our readers will be glad to learn that this great boat is to become a regular packet, plying between Memphis and New Orleans.

She has just purchased by the Memphis Packet Company, and will have the same officers and crew as the New Orleans Packet formerly had. The Eclipse will henceforth leave this port for New Orleans every alternate Monday.

THE ECLIPSE.—There is no boat that lands at our wharf that is better known or more universally admired than the Eclipse; her exterior accomodations, variegated saloons, and shaded saloon, spacious state-rooms and magnificence of her famous crew. Our readers will be glad to learn that this great boat is to become a regular packet, plying between Memphis and New Orleans.

She has just purchased by the Memphis Packet Company, and will have the same officers and crew as the New Orleans Packet formerly had. The Eclipse will henceforth leave this port for New Orleans every alternate Monday.

THE ECLIPSE.—There is no boat that lands at our wharf that is better known or more universally admired than the Eclipse; her exterior accomodations, variegated saloons, and shaded saloon, spacious state-rooms and magnificence of her famous crew. Our readers will be glad to learn that this great boat is to become a regular packet, plying between Memphis and New Orleans.

She has just purchased by the Memphis Packet Company, and will have the same officers and crew as the New Orleans Packet formerly had. The Eclipse will henceforth leave this port for New Orleans every alternate Monday.

THE ECLIPSE.—There is no boat that lands at our wharf that is better known or more universally admired than the Eclipse; her exterior accomodations, variegated saloons, and shaded saloon, spacious state-rooms and magnificence of her famous crew. Our readers will be glad to learn that this great boat is to become a regular packet, plying between Memphis and New Orleans.

She has just purchased by the Memphis Packet Company, and will have the same officers and crew as the New Orleans Packet formerly had. The Eclipse will henceforth leave this port for New Orleans every alternate Monday.

THE ECLIPSE.—There is no boat that lands at our wharf that is better known or more universally admired than the Eclipse; her exterior accomodations, variegated saloons, and shaded saloon, spacious state-rooms and magnificence of her famous crew. Our readers will be glad to learn that this great boat is to become a regular packet, plying between Memphis and New Orleans.

She has just purchased by the Memphis Packet Company, and will have the same officers and crew as the New Orleans Packet formerly had. The Eclipse will henceforth leave this port for New Orleans every alternate Monday.

THE ECLIPSE.—There is no boat that lands at our wharf that is better known or more universally admired than the Eclipse; her exterior accomodations, variegated saloons, and shaded saloon, spacious state-rooms and magnificence of her famous crew. Our readers will be glad to learn that this great boat is to become a regular packet, plying between Memphis and New Orleans.

She has just purchased by the Memphis Packet Company, and will have the same officers and crew as the New Orleans Packet formerly had. The Eclipse will henceforth leave this port for New Orleans every alternate Monday.

THE ECLIPSE.—There is no boat that lands at our wharf that is better known or more universally admired than the Eclipse; her exterior accomodations, variegated saloons, and shaded saloon, spacious state-rooms and magnificence of her famous crew. Our readers will be glad to learn that this great boat is to become a regular packet, plying between Memphis and New Orleans.

She has just purchased by the Memphis Packet Company, and will have the same officers and crew as the New Orleans Packet formerly had. The Eclipse will henceforth leave this port for New Orleans every alternate Monday.

THE ECLIPSE.—There is no boat that lands at our wharf that is better known or more universally admired than the Eclipse; her exterior accomodations, variegated saloons, and shaded saloon, spacious state-rooms and magnificence of her famous crew. Our readers will be glad to learn that this great boat is to become a regular packet, plying between Memphis and New Orleans.

She has just purchased by the Memphis Packet Company, and will have the same officers and crew as the New Orleans Packet formerly had. The Eclipse will henceforth leave this port for New Orleans every alternate Monday.

THE ECLIPSE.—There is no boat that lands at our wharf that is better known or more universally admired than the Eclipse; her exterior accomodations, variegated saloons, and shaded saloon, spacious state-rooms and magnificence of her famous crew. Our readers will be glad to learn that this great boat is to become a regular packet, plying between Memphis and New Orleans.

She has just purchased by the Memphis Packet Company, and will have the same officers and crew as the New Orleans Packet formerly had. The Eclipse will henceforth leave this port for New Orleans every alternate Monday.

THE ECLIPSE.—There is no boat that lands at our wharf that is better known or more universally admired than the Eclipse; her exterior accomodations, variegated saloons, and shaded saloon, spacious state-rooms and magnificence of her famous crew. Our readers will be glad to learn that this great boat is to become a regular packet, plying between Memphis and New Orleans.

She has just purchased by the Memphis Packet Company, and will have the same officers and crew as the New Orleans Packet formerly had. The Eclipse will henceforth leave this port for New Orleans every alternate Monday.

THE ECLIPSE.—There is no boat that lands at our wharf that is better known or more universally admired than the Eclipse; her exterior accomodations, variegated saloons, and shaded saloon, spacious state-rooms and magnificence of her famous crew. Our readers will be glad to learn that this great boat is to become a regular packet, plying between Memphis and New Orleans.

She has just purchased by the Memphis Packet Company, and will have the same officers and crew as the New Orleans Packet formerly had. The Eclipse will henceforth leave this port for New Orleans every alternate Monday.

THE ECLIPSE.—There is no boat that lands at our wharf that is better known or more universally admired than the Eclipse; her exterior accomodations, variegated saloons, and shaded saloon, spacious state-rooms and magnificence of her famous crew. Our readers will be glad to learn that this great boat is to become a regular packet, plying between Memphis and New Orleans.

She has just purchased by the Memphis Packet Company, and will have the same officers and crew as the New Orleans Packet formerly had. The Eclipse will henceforth leave this port for New Orleans every alternate Monday.

THE ECLIPSE.—There is no boat that lands at our wharf that is better known or more universally admired than the Eclipse; her exterior accomodations, variegated saloons, and shaded saloon, spacious state-rooms and magnificence of her famous crew. Our readers will be glad to learn that this great boat is to become a regular packet, plying between Memphis and New Orleans.

She has just purchased by the Memphis Packet Company, and will have the same officers and crew as the New Orleans Packet formerly had. The Eclipse will henceforth leave this port for New Orleans every alternate Monday.

THE ECLIPSE.—There is no boat that lands at our wharf that is better known or more universally admired than the Eclipse; her exterior accomodations, variegated saloons, and shaded saloon, spacious state-rooms and magnificence of her famous crew. Our readers will be glad to learn that this great boat is to become a regular packet, plying between Memphis and New Orleans.

She has just purchased by the Memphis Packet Company, and will have the same officers and crew as the New Orleans Packet formerly had. The Eclipse will henceforth leave this port for New Orleans every alternate Monday.

THE ECLIPSE.—There is no boat that lands at our wharf that is better known or more universally admired than the Eclipse; her exterior accomodations, variegated saloons, and shaded saloon, spacious state-rooms and magnificence of her famous crew. Our readers will be glad to learn that this great boat is to become a regular packet, plying between Memphis and New Orleans.

She has just purchased by the Memphis Packet Company, and will have the same officers and crew as the New Orleans Packet formerly had. The Eclipse will henceforth leave this port for New Orleans every alternate Monday.

THE ECLIPSE.—There is no boat that lands at our wharf that is better known or more universally admired than the Eclipse; her exterior accomodations, variegated saloons, and shaded saloon, spacious state-rooms and magnificence of her famous crew. Our readers will be glad to learn that this great boat is to become a regular packet, plying between Memphis and New Orleans.

She has just purchased by the Memphis Packet Company, and will have the same officers and crew as the New Orleans Packet formerly had. The Eclipse will henceforth leave this port for New Orleans every alternate Monday.

THE ECLIPSE.—There is no boat that lands at our wharf that is better known or more universally admired than the Eclipse; her exterior accomodations, variegated saloons, and shaded saloon, spacious state-rooms and magnificence of her famous crew. Our readers will be glad to learn that this great boat is to become a regular packet, plying between Memphis and New Orleans.

She has just purchased by the Memphis Packet Company, and will have the same officers and crew as the New Orleans Packet formerly had. The Eclipse will henceforth leave this port for New Orleans every alternate Monday.

THE ECLIPSE.—There is no boat that lands at our wharf that is better known or more universally admired than the Eclipse; her exterior accomodations, variegated saloons, and shaded saloon, spacious state-rooms and magnificence of her famous crew. Our readers will be glad to learn that this great boat is to become a regular packet, plying between Memphis and New Orleans.

She has just purchased by the Memphis Packet Company, and will have the same officers and crew as the New Orleans Packet formerly had. The Eclipse will henceforth leave this port for New Orleans every alternate Monday.

THE ECLIPSE.—There is no boat that lands at our wharf that is better known or more universally admired than the Eclipse; her exterior accomodations, variegated saloons, and shaded saloon, spacious state-rooms and magnificence of her famous crew. Our readers will be glad to learn that this great boat is to become a regular packet, plying between Memphis and New Orleans.

She has just purchased by the Memphis Packet Company, and will have the same officers and crew as the New Orleans Packet formerly had. The Eclipse will henceforth leave this port for New Orleans every alternate Monday.

THE ECLIPSE.—There is no boat that lands at our wharf that is better known or more universally admired than the Eclipse; her exterior accomodations, variegated saloons, and shaded saloon, spacious state-rooms and magnificence of her famous crew. Our readers will be glad to learn that this great boat is to become a regular packet, plying between Memphis and New Orleans.

She has just purchased by the Memphis Packet Company, and will have the same officers and crew as the New Orleans Packet formerly had. The Eclipse will henceforth leave this port for New Orleans every alternate Monday.

THE ECLIPSE.—There is no boat that lands at our wharf that is better known or more universally admired than the Eclipse; her exterior accomodations, variegated saloons, and shaded saloon, spacious state-rooms and magnificence of her famous crew. Our readers will be glad to learn that this great boat is to become a regular packet, plying between Memphis and New Orleans.

She has just purchased by the Memphis Packet Company, and will have the same officers and crew as the New Orleans Packet formerly had. The Eclipse will henceforth leave this port for New Orleans every alternate Monday.

THE ECLIPSE.—There is no boat that lands at our wharf that is better known or more universally admired than the Eclipse; her exterior accomodations, variegated saloons, and shaded saloon, spacious state-rooms and magnificence of her famous crew. Our readers will be glad to learn that this great boat is to become a regular packet, plying between Memphis and New Orleans.

She has just purchased by the Memphis Packet Company, and will have the same officers and crew as the New Orleans Packet formerly had. The Eclipse will henceforth leave this port for New Orleans every alternate Monday.

THE ECLIPSE.—There is no boat that lands at our wharf that is better known or more universally admired than the Eclipse; her exterior accomodations, variegated saloons, and shaded saloon, spacious state-rooms and magnificence of her famous crew. Our readers will be glad to learn that this great boat is to become a regular packet, plying between Memphis and New Orleans.

She has just purchased by the Memphis Packet Company, and will have the same officers and crew as the New Orleans Packet formerly had. The Eclipse will henceforth leave this port for New Orleans every alternate Monday.

THE ECLIPSE.—There is no boat that lands at our wharf that is better known or more universally admired than the Eclipse; her exterior accomodations, variegated saloons, and shaded saloon, spacious state-rooms and magnificence of her famous crew. Our readers will be glad to learn that this great boat is to become a regular packet, plying between Memphis and New Orleans.

She has just purchased by the Memphis Packet Company, and will have the same officers and crew as the New Orleans Packet formerly had. The Eclipse will henceforth leave this port for New Orleans every alternate Monday.

THE ECLIPSE.—There is no boat that lands at our wharf that is better known or more universally admired than the Eclipse; her exterior accomodations, variegated saloons, and shaded saloon, spacious state-rooms and magnificence of her famous crew. Our readers will be glad to learn that this great boat is to become a regular packet, plying between Memphis and New Orleans.

She has just purchased by the Memphis Packet Company, and will have the same officers and crew as the New Orleans Packet formerly had. The Eclipse will henceforth leave this port for New Orleans every alternate Monday.

THE ECLIPSE.—There is no boat that lands at our wharf that is better known or more universally admired than the Eclipse